Audit Summary

Stevens County Conservation District January 1, 1997 through December 31, 1999

ABOUT THE AUDIT

This report contains the results of our triennial independent audit of the Stevens County Conservation District for the period January 1, 1997, through December 31, 1999.

We performed audit procedures to determine whether the District complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures. We also audited the financial statements and evaluated the internal controls established by District management. Our work focused on specific areas that had potential for abuse and misuse of public resources.

RESULTS

In the areas we examined, the District complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures. The District generally had sufficient internal controls in place to safeguard assets. The District's financial statements were also complete and accurate.

Audit Areas Examined

Stevens County Conservation District January 1, 1997 through December 31, 1999

In keeping with general auditing practices, we do not examine every portion of the Stevens County Conservation District's financial activities during each audit. The areas examined were those representing the highest risk of noncompliance, misappropriation or misuse. Other areas are audited on a rotating basis over the course of several years. The following areas of the District were examined during this audit period:

LEGAL COMPLIANCE

We audited the following areas for compliance with certain applicable state and local laws and regulations:

- Open Public Meetings Act
- Travel reimbursements
- Legal and supported payments
- Conflict of interest laws
- Contracts and agreements

INTERNAL CONTROL

We evaluated the following areas of the District's internal control structure:

- Purchasing
- Payroll
- Cash receipting
- Fixed assets

FINANCIAL AREAS

In addition to the financial-related work listed in other categories, we audited the following areas:

- Cash and investments
- Overall presentation of the financial statements and notes
- Expenditures
- Revenues

Audit Overview

Stevens County Conservation District January 1, 1997 through December 31, 1999

AUDIT HISTORY

We audit the Stevens County Conservation District every three years. There were no findings issued in prior audits. This history reflects the District's commitment to maintain a strong financial system.

CONCLUSIONS

In the areas examined, we found the District complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies, procedures and requirements. The District generally had sufficient internal controls in place to safeguard assets. We also found the District's financial statements were accurate and complete.

We thank District officials and personnel for their assistance and cooperation during the audit.

Independent Auditor's Report on Compliance with State Laws and Regulations

Stevens County Conservation District January 1, 1997 through December 31, 1999

Board of Supervisors
Stevens County Conservation District
Colville, Washington

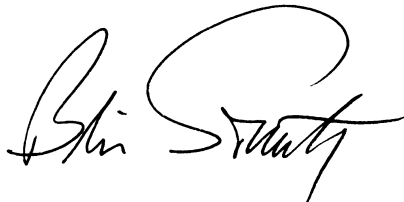

We have audited the financial statements of the Stevens County Conservation District, Stevens County, Washington, as of and for the years ended December 31, 1999, 1998 and 1997, and have issued our report thereon dated August 30, 2000.

We also performed tests of compliance with state laws and regulations as required by Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 43.09.260. This statute requires the State Auditor to inquire as to whether the District complied with the laws and the Constitution of the State of Washington, its own ordinances and orders, and the requirements of the State Auditor's Office.

Compliance with these requirements is the responsibility of the District's management. Our responsibility is to make a reasonable effort to identify any instances of misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance in office on the part of any public officer or employee and to report any such instance to the management of the District and to the Attorney General. However, the objective of our audit of the financial statements was not to provide an overall opinion on compliance with these requirements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

The results of our tests indicated that, with respect to the items tested, the District complied, in all material respects, with the applicable laws and regulations referred to in the preceding paragraphs. With respect to items not tested, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the District had not complied, in all material respects, with those provisions.

This report is intended for the information of management and the Board of Supervisors and to meet our statutory reporting obligations. This report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited. It also serves to disseminate information to the public as a reporting tool to help citizens assess government operations.

Independent Auditor's Report on Financial Statements

Stevens County Conservation District January 1, 1997 through December 31, 1999

Board of Supervisors
Stevens County Conservation District
Colville, Washington

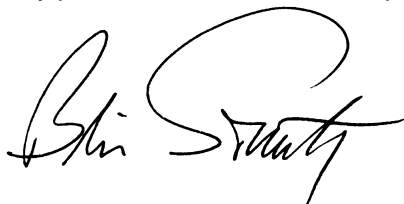

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Stevens County Conservation District, Stevens County, Washington, for the years ended December 31, 1999, 1998 and 1997. These financial statements are the responsibility of the District's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the District prepares its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting that demonstrates compliance with Washington State statutes and the Budgeting, Accounting and Reporting System (BARS) manual prescribed by the State Auditor, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the recognized revenues and expenditures of the funds of Stevens County Conservation District for the years ended December 31, 1999, 1998 and 1997, on the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Our audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying Schedules of State Financial Assistance are presented for purposes of additional analysis. These schedules are not a required part of the financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly presented, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.
